

SELF-STUDY:

This Induction training is a hugely valuable course that will assist you to get a job in the professional yachting industry! You will learn all about the Superyacht Industry and what it takes to put yourself out there.

- Learn all about the industry; including the history, different types of yachts and modes of operation, the roles of the people who make it happen and future trends in the industry.
- Learn all about what it's like working on a Superyacht! We tell you about chartering with guests, cruising with owners and the differences, types of jobs you can get and the (high) expected standards of conduct, what skills and qualifications are needed and how you can get on a career path.
- We will assist you with creating your "professional yachting" CV. You will learn how to create a yachting CV that 'sells' YOU with power and punch, bringing all your most important skills and qualities to the fore and listing everything in the right order to grab the reader's attention and showcase your unique abilities. Get more interviews for the jobs you really want!
- So you've been selected for interview! We tell what questions and scenarios to expect in an interview, and what will make you stand out from the others!
- We also provide information about the role of the MCA (Maritime and Coastguard Agency), and other organisations relevant to yachting, plus a general overview of nautical terminology, flags and the various navigational equipment onboard.
- You will also learn about visas, travel and insurance required, getting your medical cert. and all the ways how potential Superyacht crew can look for work: what works best and where and when to be there! It's obvious when someone is professionally prepared: they become the clear choice!

How "Distance Education" works: Students can download a link to the files. We send the training manual to read and the assignment to complete. If required it can also involve an hour's 'Skype time' for discussion.

About the Assignment: The (mainly multi-choice) assignment is somewhat long (but not difficult) and the reason for this is that it ensures that students have thoroughly covered the material and thought about its content and message.

Course cost? AUD$180 for this Self-study/Distance Education course. The link to the E-training manual will be emailed to you to download. Your assignment will be emailed.

There is no doubt that this introduction orientation/professional development training would benefit you greatly.

So if you want to get started, please fill out the Registration Form (at the end of this information sheet) and pay the course fee and we will immediately send you the download link to the training manual so that you can start studying.

Regards, Donna Portland, Director & Principal Trainer, Superyacht Crew International - Training
